Subject: News Update: Key EPA, Interior, Safety Board Nominees Must Be Renominated by Obama in 2014 (BNA Report)

Regulatory Policy

Key EPA, Interior, Safety Board Nominees
 Must Be Renominated by Obama in 2014

By Dean Scott

Dec. 23 — President Barack Obama will have to start all over again in 2014 filling a bevy of key posts at the Environmental Protection Agency, the U.S. Chemical Safety and Hazard Investigation Board and the Interior Department, among the hundreds of nominations that had not been voted on when the Senate adjourned for the year Dec. 20.

Senate Environment and Public Works Committee aides said 10 nominations already cleared by the panel can't be "carried over" to the second session of the 113th Congress in 2014 because Democrats were unable to persuade Republicans to agree to do so late on Dec. 20.

On Dec. 20, Assistant Majority Leader Richard Durbin (D-Ill.) was unable to get Republicans—still angry over a recent rule change allowing certain presidential nominees to be cleared by a simple majority—to allow the pending nominations to be "held at the desk" over the break. The Senate returns for the 2014 session on Jan. 6.

The nominees, all of whom will have to be renominated by Obama, include Ken Kopocis, whom the president named to serve as EPA assistant administrator for water; Richard Engler, who was tapped to fill a seat on the Chemical Safety Board; Rhea Sun Suh, who was nominated to be Interior's assistant secretary for fish and wildlife and parks; and Thomas Burke, whom the president selected to be EPA assistant administrator for research and development.

The 10 nominations will all have to come back to the environment committee for reconsideration next year, a senior committee aide said. That number does not include Janet McCabe, whom Obama announced as his pick Dec. 19 to head EPA's air and radiation office. McCabe's nomination paperwork is still being prepared, and she is only at the earliest stages of the confirmation process, the aide said (246 DEN A-1, 12/23/13).

Kopocis, a senior policy aide at EPA, has been awaiting action on his nomination for two-and-a half years. Appointed by Obama in June 2011, his nomination was blocked by Republican Sens. John Barrasso (R-Wyo.) and David Vitter (R-La.), who objected to a proposed agency guidance that they argued was an unwarranted expansion of the Clean Water Act to waters that often drain throughout the year, such as intermittent streams and geographically isolated wetlands (229 DEN A-2, 11/27/13).
